ACCREDITATION

TAKSHAA offers a BTEC HNC (Higher National Certificate) in Animation accredited by EDEXCEL UK. Edexcel, a Pearson company, is the UK's largest awarding body offering academic and vocational qualifications to schools, colleges, employers and other places of learning in the UK and internationally. Edexcel qualifications are recognised by Universities across the world including those in UK, USA and Australia.
For over 6000 global employers in 110 countries, including Emirates, Coca Cola and Diamler Chrysler, they are the programme of choice. In 2007, more than a million students enrolled on a BTEC course in the UK alone. The BTEC HNC equips students with Level 5 vocational qualifications, according to the UK educational standards.
The vast majority of BTEC HNC programmes in the UK allow progression directly on to the 2nd year of Honours Degree programmes.

Takshaa is the first Independent center in the world for Edexcel authorized to offer BTEC HNC in Animation.
